

The Second Day
 [Turn Away From Me]

Turn away from me
 Let me weep in private
 There's no consolation for the wrong I've seen
 The city of a king has fallen into ruin
 Fallen at the hands of hatefulness and greed
 Why was he so silent?
 Why did he not speak?
 Calm the angry tempest? Walk upon the deep?
 But there were no signs, no wonders, only loss
 And a broken, bleeding Jesus on a cross

Intro Fm Eb Db E D^b C E

Fm Ab C

Db (VERSE)
 Turn A-way!

Turn away from me
 Let my tears fall freely
 Bitter, angry drops of unspeakable despair
 Let them flow forever rising all around us
 Drowning out the fire of hope that had been there
 Why was he so silent?
 Offering no defense?
 Why did he not prove himself instead of mute silence?
 He only hung his head and all of us were lost
 And left here with
 A bleeding Jesus on a cross